

The judges of the Pedro Navascués Prize for PhD Theses met on 24 February 2025.

The judges were Jorge Bernabeu Larena, Javier García-Gutiérrez Mosteiro and Julio Porres de Mateo.

The judges noted the fine quality of the submissions and after a lengthy discussion they unanimously ruled to give the following prizes:

The 6000-euro Pedro Navascués Prize for PhD Theses went to the paper submitted by Leticia García Moreno, entitled Arquitectura y técnica en la obra racionalista de Luis Tolosa 1927-1956 [Architecture and technique in the rationalist work of Luis Tolosa, 1927-1956].

The 1000-euro second prize went to the paper submitted by Alicia Hueto Escobar, entitled Los muros mixtos de madera en España. Estudio de una técnica tradicional para su puesta en valor y conservación [Half-timbered walls in Spain. Study of a traditional technique for renewed use and preservation].

The judges thank all participants for their efforts
